

HO FOR THE ISLAND!

A Great Republican Demonstration over there this Evening.

EVERY REPUBLICAN CLUB IS IN IT

And Every Member of Each Should Turn out—The Line of March as Laid out by the Chief Marshal. Good Speakers will Address the Assemblage after the Parade.

This is the Seventh ward's night in the series of Republican ward meetings, and the Island will be treated to a grand demonstration, followed by good speeches by well known orators. Every Republican club in the city has been invited, and is urged, to turn out on this occasion. Each club should have every uniform in line, and the more uniformed men come out the better. The Island is the Gibraltar of Ohio county Republicanism, and it is favored with a visit by the brethren from the mainland only once in a long interval. It is to be hoped to-night's turnout will be worthy of the party and a creditable return for the Island's steadfastness in the faith.

The clubs from the city will be met at the west end of the new steel bridge by the John A. Logan club, of the Island, and the parade will start from that point. Capt. Thomas Prince will be the chief marshal.

A brass band will head the procession, and the Young Men's Republican Escort club will have the right of the line, followed by the other clubs in the order of their arrival at the rendezvous, the John A. Logan club following in the lead.

All clubs taking part will meet at their usual places at 7 o'clock sharp, and march to the Republican Central Club headquarters. The John A. Logan club of the Island will meet at 7 p. m. at Brannich's shoe store, on Zane street, and march to the bridge to meet their visitors.

At 7:15 to the dot the clubs from the city will leave the central hall, and march north on Market street to Eleventh, west on Eleventh to Main, and north to the new steel bridge, thence to South Penn street, where the Island club will join the procession, and the route will be as follows:

North on Penn to Virginia, west on Virginia to Broadway, south on Broadway to Fink street, east on Fink street to Ohio, north on Penn to Ohio, east on Ohio to Front, south on Front to new fair grounds; thence counter-march to Virginia street, west on Virginia to Huron, north on Huron to Zane, east on Zane to Broadway, north on Broadway to Front, north on Front to Cromwell, west on Cromwell to Huron, south on Huron to New Jersey, east on New Jersey to York, south on York to Indiana, west on Indiana to Huron, south on Huron to Maryland, east on Maryland to the residence of Mr. J. W. Glascock, where the speaking will take place.

The Bridgeport McKinley club is invited to send over a good big delegation, if possible, and help to swell the throng.

Every Republican on the line of march ought to decorate and illuminate, and burn lots of red fire and other pyrotechnics. Let the occasion be grand and memorable. The toll on the new bridge will be free.

The First ward club, the Ohio County Colored club, the Young Men's Escort club, the Tariff Champions, the Business Men's Protection club, the Fifth and Sixth ward clubs, the Davis club of the Eighth ward, the Republican Lively cadets and all the Republican clubs are urged by their officers to be on hands at their places of meeting promptly at 7 o'clock this evening.

The speakers will be Mr. Charles Burdett Hart and Mr. R. C. Campbell, who will give thoughtful voters of all parties some things to think about. Others will probably speak, also.

HERVEY AND McDERMAT

Address a Rousing Meeting in the South Side Turner Hall.

Saturday evening the South Side Turner hall, in the Eighth ward, that stronghold of Republicanism, saw another enthusiastic Republican meeting, addressed by Hon. H. C. Hervey, of Brooke county, and Mr. Pat McDermat, of the Fourth ward.

That faithful club, the Tariff Champions, sixty strong, escorted Mr. Hervey to the place of meeting, headed by a drum corps. The Champions were joined on the line of march by the Davis club, of the Eighth ward. All along the line of march on the South Side the clubs were enthusiastically received by the residents, who heightened the already brilliant effect by burning red fire in great quantities.

Mr. Hervey spoke for over an hour on the issues of the campaign, principally on the tariff and currency. All who have heard the gentleman speak, unite in saying that he is a most forcible and convincing speaker, and that his series of talks in the various wards of the city has done both himself and the party much good. All of his speeches in Wheeling have been of the vote-making class, and their effect will be apparent on election day.

His expose of the inconstant, vacillating policy of the Democracy in the past decade was particularly good. That party, he said, in 1884 had a plank in its platform favoring protection, while only eight years later it declares it to be a fundamental principle of Democracy that the idea of protecting high grade labor against that of pauper Europe is unconstitutional and a fraud. Where is the workingman in Wheeling or in West Virginia who can subscribe by his ballot to such a ruinous declaration of principles? If he wants a resurrection of Senator Faulkner's "good old Democratic days" when labor was illly paid, he can have it by voting the Democratic ticket.

"Pat" McDermat followed with a rousing speech that completely captured the audience. He wanted to know how any Irish-American who gains a livelihood by the sweat of his brow can vote for the candidates of a party that allows itself to be dictated to and follows the principles of free trade England. Echo and his hearers answered, "Why?"

Guests of the American Club.

The Pittsburgh Dispatch of yesterday includes in its report of a meeting of the American club the evening before the following:

"A motion was passed inviting the Young Men's Escort Club, of Wheeling, to be the guests of the American next Saturday. This is the club that entertained the Americans in Wheeling two weeks ago, and it is coming to Pittsburgh to take part in the Republican demonstration here. A reception committee, with F. C. Miller, Esq., as chairman, was appointed to meet the Wheeling club on its arrival at 5:30 next Saturday evening. The visitors will be taken to a hotel for supper and afterward escorted to their place in line by this committee. The Americans are making every preparation to have a strong turnout next Saturday, and from present indications at least 300 of its members will take part in the demonstration."

Col. Poorman at Bridgeport.

Colonel Poorman addressed a large and attentive meeting at Bridgeport on Saturday evening. The audience was composed of men of Democratic, Prohibition and Republican belief. His speech was sound, logical and convincing from beginning to end, and did good for the cause he represented. The meeting was held on the square out doors, and was called to order by Prof. James Duncan, superintendent of the Bridgeport schools, who named Mr. Myers, an iron worker at the Alena mills, as chairman. Mr. Myers presented the colonel in a few well chosen words.

Hon. C. L. Coombs will speak at the Wheeling Creek Coals Works next Wednesday evening. The McKinley club of Bridgeport will attend in a body.

Hon. Lorenzo Danford will speak at Bridgeport next Saturday evening.

Martin's Ferry Meeting To-night.

The Martin's Ferry Republicans have come to the conclusion that it is an impossibility to have a big parade and mass meeting the same night and for this reason no marching will be done this evening before the Guenther meeting at the Opera House there. When there is a large turnout of marching clubs and the route is long, most of the evening is consumed, the people become tired and cold, it is a hard matter to have a successful meeting. The two are too much for one evening. This was demonstrated on Saturday night and has been time after time. The parade having been abandoned Mr. Guenther will have more time and can make a better speech. All are invited to the meeting.

Republican Activity.

On Thursday evening the Tariff Champions will go to Moundsville to take part in a big Republican demonstration. The remarkably low rate of 25 cents for the round trip has been secured, a special train leaving the city at 7 p. m. on the Ohio River Railroad.

Wednesday Secretary Charles Foster will speak at Bellaire, and in the evening there will be a big demonstration. The Escort club and probably others will go over.

On Friday night all the local clubs will turn out in a big street parade. On Saturday all go to Pittsburgh. On Monday night the Victoria Woodhull parade in Mother Hubbard and other gowns will enlist the clubs of both parties.

Meetings in the County.

Thursday evening Mr. R. C. Campbell, of Washington, and W. J. W. Cowden addressed a fine meeting at school house No. 3, near Clinton. Saturday afternoon Mr. R. C. Campbell and Mr. A. R. Campbell spoke in the school house at Valley Grove to an audience which packed the house. These meetings in the country districts are doing great good in their quiet way, and all of them are well attended.

PENDLETON AT BENWOOD.

He Pounds Away on the Old Texts—The Millionaires Nightmare.

About 250 persons of all ages, sexes, conditions and parties heard John O. Pendleton recite the set Democratic speech of this campaign at Benwood Saturday night. The Young Men's Democratic Club went down on the B. & O. road at 7 p. m. and the Eighth ward club marched down, and these two and the Benwood club gave a parade before the meeting. The Democrats of the town illuminated and decorated, which only served to show them in the minority.

Mayor Mahood called the meeting to order and introduced a Mr. Hardsock as chairman, saying he was a recent convert from Republicanism. Mr. Hardsock introduced the orator of the evening, who in a rather more subdued manner than he used to have denounced the robber tariff, lamented the increase in the number of millionaires, and got excited over the "force bill," saying all the prominent Republicans were pledged to its passage. His reference to the "tariff barons," to Carnegie and Frick, made up half his speech.

The crowd was as orderly and attentive as could be expected of an out-door meeting on such a night. The usual crowd of young people kept up a hubbub of conversation on the outskirts of the audience—a nuisance with which both parties usually have to contend.

PEARSON AT MARTIN'S FERRY.

The Democrats have Quite a Creditable Demonstration over the River.

The Democratic parade in honor of Judge A. J. Pearson in Martin's Ferry on Saturday night was very creditable. It was nearly 9 o'clock when the procession started, nearly two hours later than advertised, and only a portion of the route was covered, much to the chagrin of the disappointed ones. Richard Stewart was captain and his aides were Millard Bailey and "Boots" Harrison. There was a good sized crowd on the streets, plenty of red fire and fireworks. A number of houses were decorated.

There were exactly 446 men and boys in line, including musicians. The count was as follows: Judge Pearson and three other Democrats in carriage; Climax band, 18; Black Eagle drum corps, 8; Tariff Students, 52; Franzheim drum corps, 7; Kenna club, 20; North Wheeling drum corps, 5; North Wheeling club, 32; Faulkner drum corps, 4; Faulkner club, 34; Bridgeport drum corps, 4; Bridgeport, 30; Boy drum corps, Bridgeport, 6; Boys' club, Bridgeport, 10; Bellaire drum corps, 4; Bellaire club, 67; Don band, 14; Martin's Ferry, 109; Dave Paxton and J. W. Lane in buggy, 2; horsemen, 13; total, 446. The Tariff Students carried off the honors.

The meeting, held in the opera house, was called to order about half past nine by S. W. Boyd, Esq., and Judge Pearson talked for an hour. He spoke of his brief record in the army and Congress, dealt in generalities, in the money and tariff questions, and paid particular attention to Colonel Poorman, his competitor. The judge mentioned Cleveland's name only once and did not predict Democratic success. The house was fairly well filled.

If you workmen do your duty... you will teach men like Harry that you possess intelligence and cannot be deluded into voting for your enemies. I cannot say one good word for the Democratic party, and I am unable to understand how any workman can vote for its candidates.—T. V. Powderly, Grand Master Workmen Knights of Labor.

Fail to Do Our Duty.

Everybody has at times failed to do their duty towards themselves. Hundreds of lady readers suffer from sick headache, nervousness, sleeplessness, and female troubles. Let them follow the example of Mrs. H. Herbechter, Stevens Point, Wis., who for five years suffered greatly from Nervous Prostration and sleeplessness, tried physicians and different medicines without success. But one bottle of Dr. Miles' Nervine caused sound sleep every night, and she is feeling like a new person. Mrs. Elizabeth Wheeler, Laramie City, Wyoming, who tried all other remedies, declares that after three weeks' use of the Nervine for Headache, Nervous Prostration, etc., she was entirely relieved. RALLY AT FAIRMONT.

A Great Republican Demonstration. Speeches and Parades.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

FAIRMONT, W. Va., Oct. 30.—The best political meeting of the year in this county was the Republican rally here Saturday and Sunday night. The town was crowded with people from all sections of this and neighboring counties and the enthusiasm for the cause of Republicanism among the most enthusiastic delegations was that from Morgantown. It was composed of the Sheridan marching club, students and town people, 173 in all. Mannington and other points also sent large delegations. The demonstration was brilliant throughout. The opera house was literally packed with people to hear the issues of the day discussed by Hons. Thomas E. Davis, candidate for governor, J. Nelson Wiener, candidate for Congress, and A. W. Campbell, of Wheeling, presidential elector-at-large. In the evening the hall was again crowded. A monster torch-light parade wound up the day's demonstration. The sky was aglow with red fire and fireworks, and the day ended in a blaze of glory. It can no longer be said that there is apathy among the Marion county Republicans.

KINGWOOD, W. Va., Oct. 30.—The new Baptist church was dedicated here today. The sermon was preached by Rev. W. E. Powell, of Parkersburg. An indebtedness of $300 was raised easily. The church cost $2,200.

GERMANY'S MOVE

To Increase Her Army Exciting Comment in Europe.

PARIS, Oct. 30.—The German military bill is the single thought of all Europe excepting France. Nobody understands why Germany should increase her effective force to such an extent as to be able to throw next spring 200,000 men in twenty-four hours upon her eastern or western frontiers.

Numerous notes have been exchanged between the different European cabinets. Mr. Gladstone, at a cabinet council on the 25th, instructed Lord Roseberry to get at the bottom of the real intentions of the German government. The sole object of Germany is to make up for the deficiency in the Austrian and Italian forces, the financial condition of those countries not permitting them to increase their armies, as members of the triple alliance. Germany is therefore obliged to make the effort herself, as it is impossible for her allies to do anything. Nevertheless, the tendency is bad. The Bourses are weak and ill at ease. This is especially the case in France.

The Wheat Situation.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—The American Agriculturist in its November number prints an elaborate review of the wheat situation. It points out that exports from India are falling off and that Russian wheat is being held for export advance, and that the surplus for export from Australia and South America is very small. The world's reserve is by no means made up by last year's heavy yield in the United States, and the replenishing of these reserves, account for our enormous exports and the active foreign market present. The Agriculturalist's verification of the returns for 1892, by conference with state agencies for crop statistics, where such exist, and by its own system on reports, indicate a total wheat crop for 1892 of 494,434,000 bushels. It claims that the area of wheat has been greatly exaggerated.

Anniversary of Methodism.

NEW YORK, Oct. 30.—Beginning with a love feast yesterday morning, a celebration of 126th anniversary of the inception of the Methodist doctrine in this country has occupied the entire day and evening to the doors. Among those taking part in the exercises were Rev. Dr. W. M. DePuy, Rev. Bishop Newman, Rev. Bishop Carman, Rev. A. B. Sanford and Bishop Walden.

A Horrible Murder.

PARIS, Oct. 30.—A terrible murder was brought to light in this city to-day. The body of a young woman cut into twelve pieces was discovered in an empty house in the Rue Botzaris, near the Parc des Batteaux Chaumont. The head of the body had been cut off and could not be found. Two men suspected of being the murderers have been arrested.

Cholera Cases.

BUDA PEST, Oct. 30.—Twelve new cases of cholera and four deaths were reported to the health officials of this city to-day.
